

BAL MASQUE AT SHUTTLE MEADOW CLUB WEDNESDAY

Dinner Parties and Bridges—Woman's Club and D. A. R. Hold Interesting Meetings This Week

There have been no really large parties this week but everyone is looking forward to the Bal Masque which is to take place next Wednesday evening at the Shuttle Meadow club. This is always one of the gayest affairs of the season and is preceded by any number of small dinner parties as well as several large ones.

Interest this week centered more or less in the club events in town. On Tuesday, the Woman's club held its regular meeting and as usual drew a large attendance. Wednesday evening, Rev. S. Parkes Cadman, D.D., spoke to the members of the McAll association and their guests. Friday, Esther Stanley, chapter, D. A. R., held a delightful meeting when Mrs. Winthrop P. Tryon of New York city spoke, her subject being, "Why New Britain Should Have Written a History." The South church bazaar or "Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before," which was held Tuesday and Wednesday at the South church under the direction of Mrs. Rufus Hemenway of course attracted many and has established itself as an annual affair.

Mrs. Rufus Hemenway of Lexington street had charge of the bazaar which was held at the South church on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The affair which was more or less of a burlesque on the new Elith Burrill Hotel was unusually distinctive and attractive. Of course a hotel always has a proprietor, general manager, clerk, waiters, bell hops, etc.

The bazaar of "Coming Events Cast Their Shadows" lacked none of these personages, going from the proprietor through a long list of help to the various shops found in any hotel. A list of those taking part follows.
